ABOUT US

Born in Indonesia, our company thrives amidst the abundance of coconuts, providing the perfect resource for cooking & hookah needs. Our journey began by recognizing the vast potential of coconut shell waste, which we ingeniously transform into high-quality charcoal briquettes.

At COCONUT BRIQUETTE SOLUTIONS, our commitment to innovation and sustainability remains unwavering. We stand tall as leaders in the industry, offering briquettes that not only elevate cooking experiences but also reflect our dedication to repurposing coconut shell waste.
