Coffee Export License (ETK)

There are 3 types of coffee owned by Indonesia, namely Robusta, Arabica and Liberika. But the most common and widely consumed types are Robusta and Arabica coffee. How to distinguish it is quite easy, it can be seen from the shape of the coffee beans. Arabica has a slightly elongated seed shape slightly flattened and a bit large in size. While robusta is rounder and looks dense and smaller in size than Arabica coffee. Indonesia has various types of coffee spread from Sabang to Marauke. Several types of coffee from Indonesia have a distinctive taste and aroma, where each region has a different cultivation method.
